

Lisa Buldeo Rai

l.buldeorai@uva.nl

2021-2024 (current position)

PhD candidate

University of Amsterdam (the Netherlands)

department of human geography, planning and international development; research group urban planning supervision by Luca Bertolini (UvA) and Jonathan Metzger (KTH Stockholm)

“Co-creating spatial imaginaries for mobility and land use in the non-urban” (working title)

PhD co-representative for urban planning

early stage researcher

TOD-IS-RUR

Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions (MSCA) Innovative Training Network (ITN)

secondments to Provincie Noord-Holland (Haarlem, the Netherlands) and UUM (Amsterdam, the Netherlands)

planned secondments to KTH Stockholm (Sweden) and IQ Samhällsbyggnad (Stockholm, Sweden)

2020-2021

sabbatical

Naples, Italy

2017-2021

architect

STRAMIEN (Antwerp, Belgium)

2019-2020

night school film & video

first year

Kaska DKO (Antwerp, Belgium)

2016-2017

architect

TRANS architectuur | stedenbouw (Ghent, Belgium)

2014-2016

master in engineering science: architecture

University of Leuven (Belgium)

cum laude

thesis in ecological urbanism “Interweaving water and incremental tissue into a hybrid network: a reverse invasion of the Suburbio” based on 3 months intensive fieldwork in Guayaquil (Ecuador)

editor-in-chief and writer for student magazine Unité

2011-2014

bachelor in engineering science: architecture

University of Leuven (Belgium)

cum laude